Dedication

Mrs. Forrest

Ms. Forrest is an amazing teacher. Most of us remember her from elementary school or from the art room in the high school. She is a sweet, loving and very skilled teacher. She was our art teacher and now we miss her greatly. She no longer teaches at the high school, due to health issues. We all pray and hope for her well being. We love her and miss her greatly. We are dedicating the yearbook to her in order to honor her.

Appreciation

Mrs. Girard

Mrs. Girard has begun her first years here this year and she has been a HUGE asset to our school. She is an amazing person and everyone likes her. She is always happy and smiling, when she comes to work she is energetic and enthusiastic we love her. We want to thank her for joining us and we want her to feel appreciated for all the help she gives to the school.

Someone could ask - what is it like being a senior? How do you answer that other than: "Well, we don't have to make up snow days, and we can eat outside & park in the first two rows. What really defines a senior is the past. Our past as a cute kindergartner, an awkward fourth-grader, an annoying middle-schooler, a strange freshman, the even more awkward sophomore, and then the junior. A senior is all that. It's the memories, the stories and the friends. We finally became seniors and before we all go our separate ways, we can remember the days we were together.

Freshman year we had those amazing Hollywood Hills with the theme "Cities." Our Knight was Jeff Tela and the Lady in Waiting was Stephanie Joly. Our class enjoyed our first parade and got an amazing work-out pushing the 1965 Mustang up the hill. We had our first Easter Bunny Breakfast, worked UMass concessions, developed friendships and waited for our turn to wear the caps and gowns.

Sophomore year went by fast. We were under the sea with the Disney Movie theme. The Little Mermaid was not the judge's favorite and was not some of ours either. (I couldn't help but to mention how badly we loved the Brave Little Toaster, wich is very much so a Disney movie.) The Duke was Aaron Cappucci and the Duchess was Abbey Daniel-Green. We had one more Easter Bunny Breakfast and continued to Work UMass Concessions. We ended the year out with many wonderful hours of MCAS. What a crazy year.

Juniors, that last full year of school. We started the year out as "Superheroes," our theme for booster day. Yet our float was not "super" enough for the judges. We had fun making Batman's abs and the remaking the Bat mobile. Our Prince was Kris York and our Princess was Danielle Sullivan. We continued to work UMass Concessions and hosted a wonderful prom with the theme of "Heres To the Night" at the Yankee Peddler. We started the college search and before we knew it we were.. Seniors!

This year started off great. Just hearing the word "seniors" made us cheer. We built our float with a lot of luck and a lot of cereal. Our Lucky Charm Float came out great but was just lacking a little bit of luck How dare we tie in the competition with the freshman. No matter how disappointing it was we were still able to smile as we took the brave little toaster off the top of the rainbow. Our King was Corey Leveille and Our Queen was Lara Ames. We planned out our senior trip to Baltimore Maryland and hopefully went on it! We applied to colleges, got in to colleges, will soon be leaving for those different colleges, and will soon be saying goodbye.

What an amazing journey through the halls of TFHS from the last four years. We are TFHS's one and only Class of 2008. And we are DONE. We owe it to your teachers, friends, family, our class mates and our advisors Ms. Daniel- Green and Ms. Kent. We shall never forget those amazing memories and all the fun times. Get ready to throw the caps up. Congratulations Class of 2008. This is what being a senior is about. Every moment.

"We all shine on, like the moon, and the stars, and the sun."

JUNIORS

The year of 2008 for the Juniors was phenomenal. This year for float making we picked Captain Crunch. Our Prince and Princess were Sam Colton and Lisa Jackson, respectively. Prom of 2008 should be great this year: we did a lot of work to raise money for it. We have one year left of high school and senior year should be awesome. We have worked on many fundraisers including one at Applebees for a Pancake Breakfast: All-You-Can-Eat! Some of us worked down at UMass working concession stands for football and basketball games, and also we sold Mo's fudge and all of these add up and we have done very well this year. Congratulations to the class of 2008, can't wait for 2009!

Sophomores

Class of 2010

This year the sophomores really shined. I think we proved what we're capable of. I'm especially proud of our float this year. Our Duke and Duchess this year were Dylan Bocon and Olivia Nicotra and they rode valiantly on our Rice Krispies float, but unfortunately we didn't win. We've also done a lot of fund raising this year like selling wreathes and pizzas to save for our class trip. I know the class of 2010 will continue to do our best to participate in all school activities. Its hard to believe but we only have two more years in Turners Falls High School. Keep up the great work sophomores!

Class of 2011

Entering freshman year, our class had no idea of what to expect. Walking through the doors of TFHS, we were nervous about being in this new school, yet excited to begin a new challenge. With new faces, new classes, the new teachers we have adjusted well to high school life. For Booster Day, the theme for the floats was cereals; we chose Frosted Flakes, which really worked for us in the end. Daniel Skarzynski and Katherine Kuklewicz were the ones to represent our class as our Knight and Lady in Waiting. Despite being the babies of the school, we had a grrrrreat float! It was upsetting though with the loss of the Booster Day and Turkey Day football game but next year we will come back for sure! During this year we've also been holding fund raisers to help raise money, including Santa's Breakfast which I heard was a SUCCESS! In the future, I hope to see a lot of great things achieved by our class of 2011!!

Kara,

Congratulations, we can't believe that you are already graduating; the time has gone by so fast, we are so proud our little bump has become such a beautiful independent young women; keep smiling and always be yourself. The best is yet to come. We Love You.

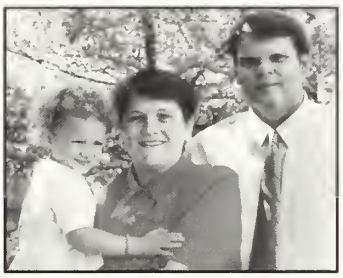
Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Kara,

It's funny how quickly time flies. Seems like yesterday we were putting black tights on our heads and pretending we were dogs. Now you're a senior and on your way to college. Good luck in the years to come.

Love, Your Sister
Danielie

Congratulations Ali Urban



It rained the day you were born.

You arrived two months early, and from my hospital room I watched the rain fall outside; I worried about your health, and then I remembered that it also rained the day Daddy and I were married. That day someone told me the rain was God showering His blessings upon us. And Ali, the greatest of those blessings is you.

As I watched the rain fall on the day you were born, I prayed that God would shower His blessings upon you and that not only would you survive, but that you would thrive. And thrive you have.

Your tenacity, dedication, responsibility, wisdom, humor, confidence, faith and love have impressed and inspired me.

Your high school graduation is a new beginning, and I know that you will continue to thrive and be a blessing in the lives of many.

How blessed I am to be your mother.

I love you to infinity

Momma

Dear Ali,
You are the sunshine that fills our days. We love you more than anything!

God bless you, Ali.

I love you.

Gina Varuzzo

Dear Gina,
No father on earth can possibly be more proud of his daughter than I am of you. You had no sooner turned 13 when you lost the most important person in your life. Suffering that tragedy could have caused you to withdraw and back away from life's challenges. But you, like your brother, were stronger beyond belief and exhibited character not often seen in young people your age. Your self motivation is an inspiration. Everything you've accomplished is a result of your hard work and perseverance. I'm confident that you'll be successful in whatever field you pursue. You are your mother's daughter and that's the highest praise I can give you.

Love you always,
Dad

Gina,
First of all, congratulations on being a senior. Too bad in less than a year you're going to be a freshman again...Haha! I know you're going to do just fine in college seeing that you actually do your work. Looks like you haven't listened to a word I've said.
Although I don't see you a lot because I'm at school and when I'm home, I'm working. You've been a good sister and we've been through a lot. I hope the rest of your senior year goes well and you get into the school of your choosing. I'll be there if you need anything, so just let me know.
Love, Tony

Corey Leveille

Corey,
We've watched you grow into a young man who is kind and thoughtful of others, and a great brother to Krista. We know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do because you always reach the goals you set for yourself. We will always be here for you, and never forget how much we all love you.

Amanda,
From the baby whose first word was "duck"
to the young woman who is an accomplished equestrian you have made us so proud of you. You will always be the girl who would rather clean a stall than her own room and who was always willing to get back on when you fell.
We have had many years of learning with you,
laughing with you and loving you.
We hope to have many more, so follow your dreams!
GO FOR IT!!
Love Always,
Mom & Dad

Ja Kocham Cie,
Babci

Amanda,
Lets be honest, there's really no way I can put everything in this.I couldn't even tell you how many years we've been friends at this point, i think its around 10ish.I really had a hard time picking out a picture because we have done so much together.We've been going to maine and sanibel a bunch of years and its always so much fun.Maine=beater tan kid and the elk farm.Sanibel=ding darling and meeko.Also a lot of sunburns(like those ones around your eyes).I remember you always had to go on the rides first cause I was afraid(the giant taco) and I hope that your not scarred from the movies that my mom brought us to see.We really cause a lot of problems when we go out to eat, like the "spider" incident at Olive Garden and when you tried to kill me with the steak knife at bugaboo.Remember paradise by the dashboard lights.We've had so many fun times and I cant wait for more.When you go to college you better not forget about me or I will hunt you down.
Love from your sister that you keep locked in the basement,
Amber

Class of 2008

Country Oil wishes you the best for your journey ahead. Chase after your dreams and never give up!

COURTNEY ELIZABETH WELLS

I hope the days come easy
And the moments pass slow
And each road leads you
Where you want to go
And if you're faced with the choice
And have to choose
I hope you choose the one
That means the most to you
And if one door opens to Another door closed
I hope you keep on walkin' 'til you
Find the window
If it's cold outside, show the world
The warmth of your smile

I hope you never look back but
You never forget
All the ones who love you
And the place you left
I hope you always forgive
And you never regret
And you help somebody every Chance you get
And you find God's grace in Every mistake
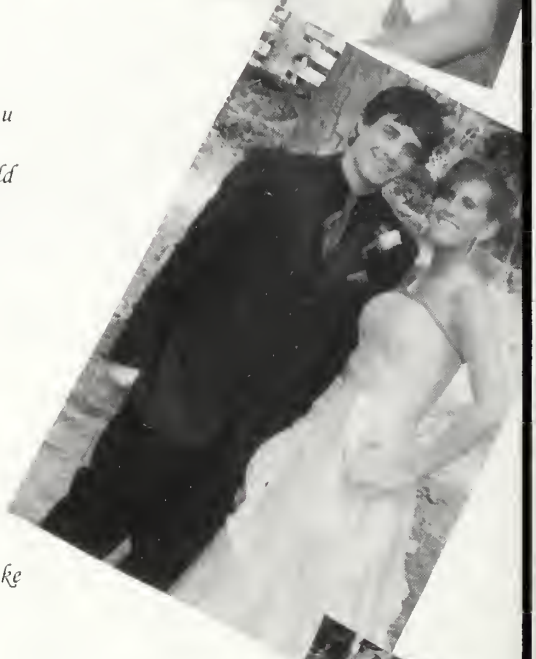
And always give more than you take



But more than anything,
My wish for you
Is that this life becomes all
That you want it to
Your dreams stay big
Your worries stay small
You never need to carry more than
You can hold
And while you're out there gettin'
Where you're gettin' to
I hope you know somebody loves you
And wants the same things too.

WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU AND WE LOVE YOU BABY GIRL.

Molly Perry

Mollykins:
I could have never asked for a better sister than you. Your heart beats with loyalty and compassion, your spirit flows strong and brave, and your mind dances with wit and humor. It seems that I must have blinked too long, for the child that was my kid sister has disappeared. In her place, I see a beautiful young woman that I am proud to call my kin. I will be forever grateful that Mom and Dad did not recycle you as I advised when you were born.
Love always and forever,
Anna Caroline

To Molly:
From Maine and Cape Cod the Grandmothers of the Curtis and Perry families wish to congratulate you on your many achievements and success. It is with pride that members of both families acknowledge your dedication and accomplishments. Accept all our best wishes for a bright future.
Love, Sally Curtis and Family
Grayce Perry and Family

Grampy Perry told me on numerous occasions how lucky I was to have such two fine daughters. I agree with him! I also think he was glad that he had two fine minds to tease, challenge, and admire. And he loved it when you got the best of him, which most often you did. He truly enjoyed watching you and your sister illuminate his world. You have used your time well to acquire the tools and skills you will need to construct your future. And your future has arrived. Be it large or small, it most certainly will be unique. Go build your dream!
Love, Dad

Molly

Deciding long ago, the path that would lead you to the destination of your choosing, you have quietly marked each and every step with dedication, perseverance and the quiet dignity of self accomplishment. Your light was never in anyone's shadow, for your sun casts light in all directions, and any obstacles encountered were outmaneuvered and overcome by just another personal level of extra effort. Our pride in your achievements should be surpassed by the pride you have in yourself for the level of excellence you have attained. You have diligently embraced the two principles of self reliance for success, "Finish what you start and sign what you do." You did! Congratulations.
We look forward to your new challenges for the sheer enjoyment of watching you take them in stride and good humor. Likewise, we look forward to hot water when we shower, a dry towel on the rack, a preferred parking space in the driveway, and not being chew toys for your four footed soul mate. With trepidation we too must face new challenges of fixing computer freeze ups without your assistance, getting the remote control of any household appliance, once found, to work all by ourselves, pushing the correct button on the microscopic cell phone, and waiting for you to come home to make homemade pastries. The washing machine will probably cease to function without its daily feeding of dirty athletic uniforms and sweat socks. And, we will probably be feasting for months on the frozen vegetables that have been employed for the last six years as reusable ice packs for your bruises and sports injuries. We have been waiting to eat those frozen peas for years. Yes, life will be different once you go off to college. Congratulations! Well done. New adventures wait on the horizon.

Love, Mom and Dad

To Molly:

I'm frightened of everything that inhabits the night,
And of objects that get moved when not in my sight.
I'm warm slippers at night, laying there by your feet,
And a pain every minute when it's my time to eat.
I get priority parking on the couch with TV
And stand on the beds to make it easier to see.
I've got you well trained or have you trained me?
Answers to this question aren't so easy to see.
I dance with both ends, the front and the back.
Just point out those bunnies so I can attack.
I run in my sleep and bark in my dreams,
Play "mad dog" when muzzled with instant whipped cream.
I'm softer than stuffed toys; you're one or two fewer,
But I'm innocent of malice, I am just the chewer.
I leap with abandon, returning with air,
Catch it or not, you don't seem to care.
I'm proud to be fierce, ripping holes in your jeans
And with one stolen sock I'm a puppy with means.
The countless nights I have coached, counseled or stayed
As the drama of growing up has played out on your stage.
I'm the guardian, aggressor, keep your secrets confessor,
I'm your four footed soul mate, and that time is forever.
In destiny's fabric and patchwork of seams
I guard your soft heart, bright hopes and big dreams.

Always, Mikey

En los momentos difíciles hemos logrado salir adelante y nos ha hecho mas fuertes. Sé que estas muy preocupado de como serás como esposo y padre, pero tengo completa confianza en ti. Sé que serás absolutamente grandioso aun mas de lo que eres ahora y sé que todo irá bien. Mantenten trabajando como lo estas hacienda ahora y todo irá bien. Mira todo aquello que te ayudo a seguir adelante para graduarte. Estoy muy orgullosa de ti guapo, no tienes idea. Tal vez tu pienses diferente, que debistes haberte graduado antes pero las rezones que no te permitieron rendirte es algo grandioso. Esto demuestra la clase de persona que eres. Muchos se rindieron pero tú no, seguistes adelante luchando. Estoy muy orgullosa de ti. Yo te amo con todo mi corazón y mi alma. Te amo desde la cabeza a los pies.

Por siempre y para siempre,

Describirte hijo es y no es facil para mi. Eres único. Siempre haz sido chic alegre, divertido, amable, cariñoso, confiable, curioso, jucioso, terco, de gran corazón y querido por todos. Con demasiada madurez aun desde chico. Ya eres un adulto, pero aun tienes alma de niño. Cuando nacistes tanto doctores como emfermeras se quedaban sorprendidos por lo fuerte que eras y port us manos grandotas y tambien port u capacidad de aprender tan rapida. No importaba donde fueras siempre llamabas la atención. Recuerdo cuando viajabamos a visitor a tu abuelita Vida y yo comenzaba a cantar y tu me seguias. Siempre fuistes asi, aprendias rapido, me escuchabas a cantar y tu aun lo haces, (cuando te da la gana, jajaja) Te amo hijo querido. Me siento orgullosa de ti. Y me siento recompenzada cuando la gente se me acerca a decrime de cuan orgullosa estan de ti, de cuando tu impactas sus vidas y del buen ejemplo que siempre das. Para mi es el premio que todo padre siempre espera de sus hijos. Tú u tus hermonos son un regalo de Dios a mi vida. Cada uno de ustedes es único y los amo con todo mi corazón. Sé cuanto luchan por salir adelante, teniendo que aprender un segundo idioma. Te admiro con mi corazón por lo jucisos que siempre haz sido. Gracias por ser no solo mi hijo, sino también mi amigo, mi mano derecha. Gracias por estar conmigo en las buenas y en las malas. Sigue adelante mirando al futuro, y vive cada momento de tu vida como si fuera el último. No te detengas aunque te fatigues, porque la recompenza esta cerca. Se que Dios Dios te bendiga hijo querido!!!
Te ama tu Mami

Stephanie,
Your father and I cannot believe, you have already reached the most exciting time of your life. "High School graduation,We are so proud of you!" This is just one of the many expectations and accomplishments, you will achieve to becoming the wonderful person,which you are today.You have flourished and blossomed into a beautiful person, in mind, spirit and personality. Don't allow anyone or anything, obstruct you or your dreams, continue to be the strong person that you are today, and you will go far in life. Don't ever forget the main ingredients in life: Be happy and think positive, Be prosperous, Be helpful and kind, Be grateful and generous. Blend all of the above together, and just be yourself. Remember to always keep in touch with your family and friends! Never forget the wonderful times and moments we have all enjoyed and cherished together; the good and the bad times, it has made us, who we are today! May god bless you and help your Guardian Angel guide you to the good life you deserve.

With all our love,

I look up to you as an older sister and you have always been there for me through it all. You are not only my sister, but my best friend that I never am going to get rid of. We have had so many memories throughout or childhood and all we've been through has just brought us that much closer. Zack Little

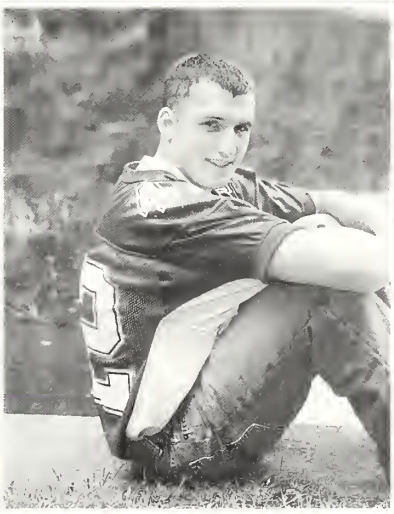
Zack,

The time has gone on so quickly. From the cute little bundle we brought home, to the fine young man you have become. We love you and know that your future is bright. Thank you for all the football games, baseball games, spaghetti dinners, band concerts and times at floatmaking. You have given us many blessings.

God Bless,

Love, Mom & Dad



Zack, thanks for not being tooooo annoying of a brother throughout the years. I'm so proud of you and everything you have accomplished. You turned into a handsome, intelligent, and patient young man. I'm glad we've grown closer as the time went on and moved from the phase of pulling hair and trying to make you mad by sitting in your sled. I love you and I'm always here for you!

Love,

Your Awesome Sister--Sarah

Kyle Pelis

Kyle,
Press on to the high calling of your God given destiny.
Love, Babci and Grandpa

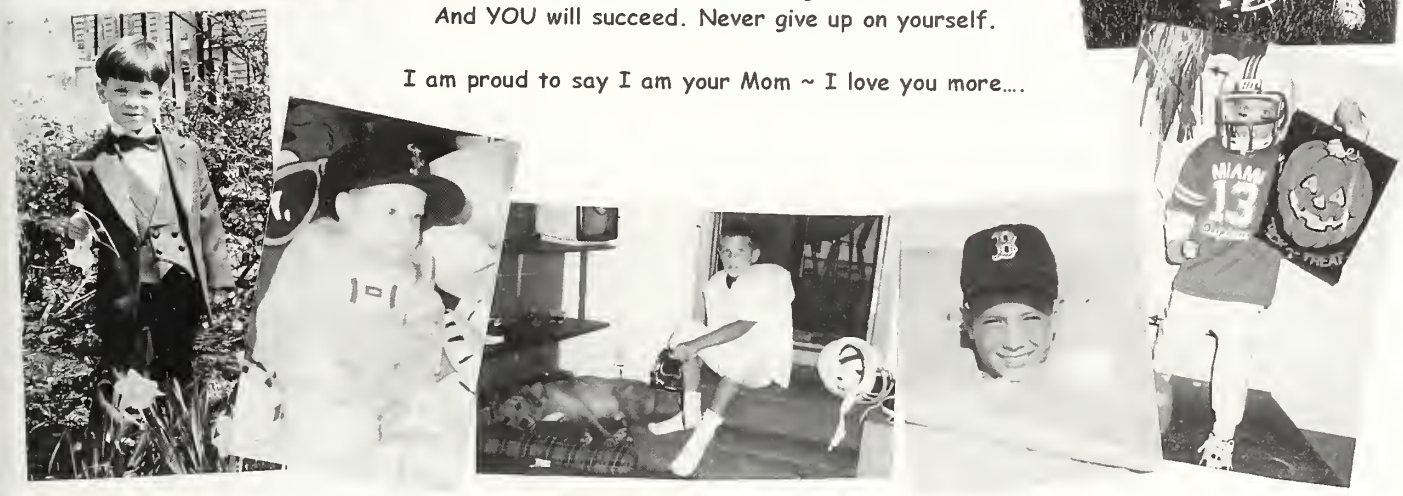
Kyle, it seems like just yesterday you came into our lives. Continue to follow your dreams and you will be a great success. We are so very proud of the young man you have become. Love Grampy and Grammy

Kyle, Youve gone from tricycles and teddy bears to a job and a car. Remember to always reach for the stars and stand firm in what you believe in. Enjoy this time in your life; you only have it once. Work hard, play hard and believe in yourself.
Love, Dad and Mom.

JR,
You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself any direction you choose.
You're on your own.
And you know what you know.
And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go.
(Dr Seuss)

Jamison,
Your future is waiting for you. You have dreams and goals. Make it what you will. You have the intelligence, dignity, integrity, and the fortitude to make right choices to succeed. And YOU will succeed. Never give up on yourself.

I am proud to say I am your Mom ~ I love you more....



Kayla Pecor

Kayla,
Your hard work, perseverance and dedication to your goals are what made you a successful student. I know you will carry these same qualities over into your life and be a successful person.

I have loved watching you grow into the person you are today. we have had a lot of fun times, serious chats, and days I thought il would trade you in for the new and improved model ("How did those candies get into my pocket?") . When you're away next year at college I will miss all of these. I will miss your exuberance when you believe in something and when you feel you or some one close to you has been wronged. Again, it it these strong qualities that make you so endearing. You never know what each day will bring!

I love you and I'm so proud of how hard you have worked. The long hours of studying have paid off! You are a great student that will be an asset to any collage!

Love you lots!
Mom
